Re.: Adjustments to 2012-13 School Calendar

At this time, in an attempt to make-up for some of the days lost to the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy and the subsequent nor'easter, the following changes have been made to the calendar:

Monday, January 21, 2013 – School in session, full day

Thursday, February 14, 2013 – School in session, full day

Friday, February 15, 2013 – School in session, full day

Monday, February 18, 2013 – School in session, full day

Thursday, March 28, 2013 – School in session, 12:05 p.m. dismissal

Enjoy a very Happy Thanksgiving. We all have very much to be thankful for.
