

STUDENTS JOIN LOCKS OF LOVE AND PANTENE GREAT LENGTHS TO GO A CUT ABOVE FOR A WORTHY CAUSE

Michaela, Mia, Lindsay, and Kayla — all third grade Saint James School students — decided to cut their long beautiful hair to give back to others who needed their help. In December, these selfless young girls donated their cut ponytails to Locks of Love and Pantene Great Lengths, organizations that provide hair-pieces to disadvantaged children suffering from long-term hair loss.

Between all four girls, they cut and donated over 42 inches of hair. The school community is proud that they decided to cut their hair and give this gift to make a difference in another child's life. They are an inspiration to us all!

Michaela cut nine inches of hair, Mia cut 11 inches of hair, Lindsay cut 12 inches of hair, and Kayla cut 10 inches of hair. The girls all look beautiful with their new looks, as well!

(Left to right) St. James School students Michaela, Mia, Lindsay, and Kayla show off their new hairdos after donating their hair to Locks of Love and Pantene Great Lengths to help other children dealing with long-term hair loss.